What David Warwick asks from the Instructing Party

- Return of signed Terms and Conditions prior to David Warwick seeing the Client
- Provision of all relevant medical records, xrays and scans prior to my seeing the client

Fees

- A typical Personal Injury Report, is charged at £750-£1500 depending on the volume of records and the complexity of issues to be addressed.
- A typical Medical Negligence Report is likely to be considerably higher, usually £1000 to £2000.
- Set fees or timed fees are available.
- Professor Warwick's fees are otherwise based upon an hourly rate of £425 to include examination, perusal of medical records and preparation of the Report, charged in 10 minute aliquots.
- If the client cancels the appointment giving less than 48 hours notice or fails to attend, Professor Warwick will charge a cancellation fee of £125.
- All fees are subject to VAT at the present rate
- Professor Warwick's fees remain payable in full by the instructing party, regardless of assessment or taxation by Court and are not dependent upon the successful outcome of the case.
- In certain circumstances, fixed fee arrangements can be negotiated.
- David Warwick will readily consider deferred payment arrangements on request

Court Attendance & Attendance with Counsel

- All reasonable expenses to be paid, including but not limited to: First Class Rail Travel, Air Travel, Hotel Expenses (4 Star), car mileage at 50 pence per mile, taxi fares. Travel time at £150 per hour.
- A rate of £425 per hour (charged in 10 minute aliquots) will apply to all other work to include Joint Statements, preparation for Court and case conferences.
- Court attendance is charged at £1500 per half day, £3000 per whole day

- NHS employment requires 6 weeks notice of cancellation of operating lists and clinics. Private clinics and lists require similar notice for rescheduling. Therefore, if having required Professor Warwick's attendance or asked that a case be entered in the diary, such attendance is cancelled with less than 6 weeks notice, 25% fees for the whole of the allotted time will be payable. If David Warwick receives less than 21 days notice, then the 50% fee for the allotted time will be payable; if less than 14 days notice, 100% is payable.
- In view of the requirement to keep costs reasonable and proportionate, conference by Zoom or Teams is preferred.

Payment Terms

- David Warwick will readily consider deferred payment arrangements on request.
- Otherwise, all fee notes are payable within 3 months of dispatch regardless of how the case is funded, unless Professor Warwick has a prior written agreement with your firm. Payment by the instructing party is not contingent upon the contents of, or opinions expressed within, the Report.
- Delayed payment will incur, at David Warwick's discretion, interest at the prevailing commercial rate
- In the event of delayed payment, David Warwick reserves the right to cease further work on a case until such time as the fees are settled and any accrued interest paid.
- In Single Joint Expert cases, in the event of non-payment of fee by one party, liability for the entire fee note lies with the instructing solicitor.
- The liability of David Warwick to instructing solicitors and/or their clients for negligence howsoever arising in respect of any loss or damage caused by an act or default of Professor Warwick shall be limited to the amount received by David Warwick for his services. David Warwick is indemnified by SEMPRIS.
- Instructing solicitors shall treat all information provided by David Warwick as confidential and shall not disclose indirectly or directly or otherwise use this information except for the purpose of the specified litigation without the prior consent of David Warwick.
- Intellectual property remains with David Warwick until full payment of fees.

Apart from our eyes, the Hand is the most important organ through which we interact with our surroundings. Our personal independence, livelihoods and leisure all require competent pain-free hand function. The Hand can be affected by personal injury, medical negligence or the workplace, thus inevitably becoming an object of legal attention.
